

 Middle East Port Advisory Date / Time: 13/03/2026 - 17:00 UAE LT
Regional Overview	The overall operational situation remains broadly unchanged since the last report. The Port of Sohar has resumed operations after a brief suspension.
	Traffic through the Strait of Hormuz remains severely disrupted, and many shipping companies continue to avoid transits due to heightened security risks.
	Airspace across most Gulf countries is reopening on a restricted basis. While some countries remain closed, most have resumed limited operations with fewer flights. As a result, crew changes may be possible in certain locations but remain constrained and subject to local conditions. Customers are advised to contact Inchcape for location specific guidance and support.

Vessels carrying DG must obtain berthing approval in advance from the Israeli Navy and the Ports and Shipping Authority. AIS systems – it is recommended to switch off the system after entering the Israeli EEZ in order to prevent civil surveillance from online tracking sites.
